

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

C. How do I resign from my Membership?

Q1. Can I transfer my membership to another party?

A1. In virtually all cases, No. The only exception is that members are permitted to transfer their shares to an adult child. In such cases a transfer fee applies (currently $195.00).

Q2. How do I resign my membership from the Club?

A2. See Page 4 Article III Section F of the Club's by-laws: Click Here. In order to resign your membership you must submit your request in writing along with your endorsed Share Certificate to the Club's post office box address. Woodland Hills Club P.O. Box 12861 Pittsburgh, PA 15241

Q3. Where do I endorse the Share Certificate?

A3. The certificate must be signed by EACH named owner on the back-side, lower right-hand corner at the green line. Resignations postmarked after March 1st of that year will be subject to a $50 late fee.

Q4. What if I can't find my Share Certificate?

A4. The Club uses a substitute document which must be signed and witnessed. Contact the Club's business manager for more details should the situation arise. Send an email to info@whc-usc.org

Q5. Is there any way to suspend my membership should I be unable to use the facility for any part of or the entire season?

A5. No. The Club relies on the participation of all members and seasonal guests in order to meet its financial obligations.

Q6. If I resign my membership are there any provisions for rejoining the Club?

A6. Members who resign in good standing are given a five-year period to rejoin the Club and receive preferential treatment on the waiting list. An application fee and new member fees will apply. Check website Membership page for current prices.

Any questions, send an email to info@whc-usc.org
